NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS RECOMMENDED FOR UNANIMOUS ADOPTION BY ALL ISRAEL

By RABBI SAMUEL ROSINGER

I firmly resolve that I shall no longer be a Jew merely by accident of birth, but by the knowledge and convictions born of breeding. Judaism is not a blind faith. It is a religion of light. Its symbols are the Perpetual Lamp and the Menorah. I shall inform myself of the history and the traditions of my people, glory in their matchless achievements, and prize the spiritual treasures they bequeathed to me as a most precious heritage.

I firmly resolve to be staunchly loyal to the faith of my fathers, and to the Congregation of Israel that has preserved it. As an American citizen I will serve unreservedly my country and promote its welfare to the best of my ability. Yet, civic work will never absorb me so completely that I neglect the duties and obligations I owe my own religion and the Jewish community. I will be fully mindful of the truth the better Jew, the better American I am.

I firmly resolve that I shall not make a mockery of my religion by attending Divine services only on two days in the year, nor shall I be driven to the House of God by bereavement to recite the Kaddish prayer. I shall serve the Lord with joy and participate in public worship at least every Sabbath.

I firmly resolve that I shall make of my religion a living faith by reintroducing into my home the time hallowed prayers and ceremonies which sanctify life, and by their symbolism remind us that we are under the dispensation of an all loving Providence.

I firmly resolve that I shall

Wise Says War To End On April 12, 1944

By Jewish Telegraphic Agency

NEW YORK — War against Germany will end on April 12, 1944, it was predicted this week by Rabbi Stephen Wise. Dr. Wise voiced his prediction in connection with the nation-wide "Time for Victory" contest, the sponsors of which are offering $2,500 in war bonds to the person making the most accurate guess.

Dr. Kurt Rosenfeld Succumbs at 68

By Jewish Telegraphic Agency

NEW YORK—Funeral services will be held here this week for Dr. Kurt Rosenfeld, prominent German Jewish Socialist and jurist, who died at his home in Queens at the age of 68. Dr. Rosenfeld was a member of the Reichstag from 1919 until 1933 when he was forced to flee Germany. Prior to that he was Prussian Minister of Justice. At the time of his death he was president of the anti-Nazi German American Emergency Conference, which he helped to found here a short time ago to combat Nazi activities.

Hull Greet Jews

WASHINGTON—The following is a Rosh Hashonah message issued by Secretary of State Cordell Hull to the Jews of America through the Jewish Telegraphic Agency.

"On the occasion of the celebration of the Jewish New Year I desire to extend my greetings to all Americans of the Jewish faith. It seems appropriate at this season to express again my constant sympathy with them in their sorrow over those of their religion who still live and die in the deep shadow of persecution. It is also appropriate at this time for us to rejoice together over the world's quickening hope for the dawn of a new year in which we may realize peace at last for all the great brotherhood of mankind."

10, 7-Year Terms As Two Guilty In Arms Trial

By B. CORALNIK

By Jewish Telegraphic Agency

JERUSALEM—A British military court this week sentenced Leib Sirkin and Abraham Rachlin to terms of ten and seven years imprisonment, respectively, on charges of illegally securing arms stolen from military stores.

The verdict, which was immediately followed by the sentencing of the two defendants, was issued this morning after a six-week trial which attracted world-wide attention, since the issues involved transcended the guilt or innocence of the two accused.

Defense attorneys Philip Joseph and Asher Levitsky announced that they would appeal the decision to the general officer commanding British forces in the Middle East and would carry the case to the King, if necessary. Dr. Joseph, who was Sirkin's attorney, stated that "Sirkin came here for justice, not mercy. He still considers himself innocent and will not refrain from appealing to the GOC and, if that fails, to the King."

Before delivering the court's verdict, the president of the tribunal, Maj. Russel Lawrence, made the following statement: "This trial has proved the existence of a large, embracing conspiracy to obtain arms and ammunition from His Majesty's forces. The offenses of which both accused are charged, are a result of this conspiracy which is against the security of the country's inhabitants as well as a hindrance to the war effort. No decent man should allow arms brought by sea at risk of men's lives to be stolen. The organization behind the accused seemingly possesses vast sums of money and a great knowledge of military matters and organization."

Women, 14-Year Olds Forced to Work in Labor Camps

Prisoners Revolt, Fire Death Chambers

By Jewish Telegraphic Agency

LONDON — Jewish prisoners in the notorious Treblinka concentration camp in Poland revolted in August, setting fire to barracks and other buildings and also to the gas chambers in which thousands of Jews have been executed, according to a report reaching the Polish Government-in-Exile here this week. The report does not give any further details.

Silesia, in Poland, where they are being used for road building, mining and other difficult manual labor, according to a reliable report reaching here this week.

Among the deportees are several thousand women, who are also compelled to work, the report says. It declares that conditions at most of the camps are so appalling that many of the internees have committed suicide. In a camp at Koenigshutte, the report discloses, there are 3,000 French Jews, including children of 14 and 15 years of age, who are forced to work in neighboring potassium mines and to dwell in underground quarters.

At camp Breig near Breslau, the report continues, 600 Parisian Jews are employed as road-builders. They work from 4:30 a. m. until 7 p. m. with only one hour for rest and eating. About 9,000 Jewish deportees from Czechoslovakia, Holland and France are working in the Myskiwuez-Chrazańow-Trzebinia region, while 5,000 from the Government-General are in a camp at Myslowitz. A few thousand Jews in the Katowice-Birkenau-Wadowice district are used for constructing bridges and building houses and roads.

Two thousand Jewish women from Paris are at Oberlangen-Bielau and another 300 are at a camp near Neisse, the report reveals. Conditions at the latter camp, it adds, are particularly bad, and many of the women prisoners are reported to have taken their lives.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

GOVERNOR SCHRICKER

Sincerely we salute the sons and daughters of the Jewish people of Indiana who have so gallantly answered the call to their country's colors . . . and we salute the Jewish men and women on the home front who through their untiring efforts and accomplishments are proving that Hitlerism must be driven from the face of the earth and that free people will make any necessary patriotic sacrifice to keep our nation free.

★ We are proud that the Democratic Party, the oldest political party in the world, has always and will always be the champion of tolerance.

★ We point with pride to the fact that the Democratic Party has always fought the battle of the oppressed.

★ The Democratic Party in Indiana is proud to present its distinguished leaders, President Franklin D. Roosevelt and Governor Henry F. Schricker. President Roosevelt is the outstanding figure in the world today in the battle for human rights. Governor Henry F. Schricker has definitely demonstrated that he is the governor for all the people regardless of race, class, creed or color.

May we take this opportunity to wish for all the Jewish people in our great state, health, happiness and prosperity in the New Year 5704 and assure them that the Democratic Party will always be mindful of their best interest and shall ever endeavor to bring to them good government.

Yours for Victory,

INDIANA DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

CIGARETTE FUND DOUBLES AGAIN; NOW $135.70

Headed by a $25.00 gift from the National Silk Hosiery Mills, the Jewish Post Cigarette Fund to provide a carton of cigarettes as a Chanukah Gift for every Indiana Jewish servicemen, almost doubled itself this week. The total to date rests at $135.00 as against $78.70 last week.

With the fund adding larger and larger weekly amounts as readers of The Post are joining in to make possible this memento from Indiana Jewry to its men and women serving in the armed forces, wherever stationed, prospects for reaching the $1,000 goal were considerably heightened. The National Silk gift is the first from a large firm and should be the forerunner of many other such gifts from all parts of the state.

Two anonymous gifts, one from Indianapolis and the other from Fort Wayne made their appearance this week, although The Post prefers to list the names of contributors.

Marion kept the lead for out-of-state contributions when the Marion Men's Recreation Club, which is a group who meet regularly for the relaxation of cards, sent in $10.00.

The deadline for sending gifts to army men overseas is Oct. 15, with the deadline for Navy men set at Nov. 1. This is for gifts for Chanukah, which this year falls on Dec. 22. Gifts to men in the United States camps may be sent later, so that more time to reach the goal is available. It is estimated that 1,500 or more Indiana Jewish men and women are in the service, so that at least $1,000 will be required if all of them are to be remembered.

The Marion Recreation Club gift is the second from a card or related group. The first came in last week from the Tuesday Mah Jong Club, which was listed at $15.00. When the check came in, it was for $16.00, and in order to keep the records straight the extra dollar is shown this week.

Total announced last week$78.70

New Year Messages

Rabbis Address Community at Holiday Season

A New Year Editorial
By RABBI MAURICE GOLDBLATT
Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation

THE AMERICAN JEW FACES THE NEW YEAR with mixed feelings. It is our own happy lot to be in blessed America. Elsewhere in the world the Jew stands in jeopardy of life and spirit. May God grant that the long dark shadow of despair will be lifted and the bright light of victory will bring lasting peace to all mankind.

Until that time, let us spare no effort to hasten the coming of the day of deliverance from fear and anxiety and the realization of freedom and democracy for all mankind.

Jewish History Continually a Tale of Woe

By RABBI IRVING A. WEINGART
B'nai Jacob Congregation, Fort Wayne

OURS IS CONTINUALLY A TALE OF WOE. Our hopes and prayers of the yester-years yet go unanswered and darkness still envelops the Jewish horizon. Thus, standing at the threshold of a new year, we may justly pose the query—What is new in the New Year?

We, as Elijah of old, flee from the tragedy of Jewish experience to the Mount of the Lord—there to await an answer to the mystery of our plight and existence. As Elijah, we hear howling winds blowing from all quarters, chilling the Jewish spirit; we witness turbulent storms of upheaval playing havoc with Jewish life; we are helpless spectators witnessing destructive fires consuming Jewish body and soul and creations of centuries. But, alas, unfortunately, unlike Elijah we are not privileged to hear the small quiet assuring Voice that, after this upheaval, will come peace and tranquility to the Jewish soul.

However, standing at the peak of the old year we can better acquire the proper perspective to evaluate our experiences, gauge our strength, weigh our failures, contemplate our short-comings, and then turn our gaze to the tomorrow.

If our experiences were tragic and bitter, they were part of a world tragedy—only more severe. If our strength has been sapped in one sphere, it has been invigorated and revitalized in another sphere—America, through the union of forces expressed by the assembly of the American Jewish Conference. The editor's chair,

With no reflection on the oratorical ability of Lewis Sutin, very capable president of District Grand Lodge No. 2 of B'nai B'rith, the logic of discontinuing the present custom of an annual speaking exhibition by the president before each lodge becomes quite irrefutable.

When a president who can deliver a stirring oration like Mr. Sutin comes along, all well and good, but what of the more frequent times when the president is merely a good executive who guides the destinies of the lodges in his eight states expertly, but whose speech-making cannot compare with that of Rabbi Abba Hillel Silver. The same speaking tour is held, and the poor attendances because of past disappointments with the speaking ability of the previous presidents, results.

There is nothing inconsistent with receptions for the visiting president. Then instead of devoting so much time to preparing and delivering his speech, the president can spend some time with lodge officials thrashing out their local problems, and generally giving the lodges the benefit of his wisdom and experience.

A few years ago a man who was considered excellent timber for the office of president of the District was dropped because he spoke with an accent. This was an unfortunate incident as everyone realized, but nothing was done to correct the situation.

The president of the District should be a man who by his work in the Order has proven his right to lead the largest District in the Supreme Grand Lodge. That he is or isn't a good speaker, has nothing to do with his selection, and the artificial criterion which this speaking ability has set up, is completely out of reason.

Mishawake Synagogue

MISHAWAKA—Rosh Hashanah services will be conducted Wednesday evening, Sept. 29, and on Thursday and Friday, Sept. 30 and Oct. 1. Cantor Meyer Hanick of South Bend will chant the prayers, and a student from the Hebrew Theological College of Chicago will deliver the sermons.

Now The Time To Raise Building Fund

DOTTING THE NATION'S Jewish communities, drives for building funds with which to construct new congregations are springing up and meeting with unprecedented success.

Held back from building during the depression days, these congregations whose present physical facilities have long been outgrown, are raising the funds under an arrangement that works out so well that the congregations have been surprised at the ease of their task.

All monies raised are immediately put into War Bonds. After the war, the building will be constructed. This accomplishes a double purpose, that of the patriotic motive of providing funds for our government now, and the laudable purpose of providing building projects for after the war. When added to this is the religious appeal, then the success of these drives are all the more understandable.

A local case in point is the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation. At one time some ten years ago a building fund was projected, but fell through under the impact of the depression. So The Post suggests respectfully, in view of the present favorable circumstances that a new drive be started, which unless Indianapolis all of a sudden loses its sense of responsibility, will undoubtedly meet with the success it deserves.

No Editorial Admonition Required

THE AMBITIOUS PLANS of the Indianapolis lodge of B'nai B'rith to make October as B'nai B'rith Blood Bank Month a resounding success, are no doubt being duplicated throughout the state, where in each community the B'nai B'rith lodge is undertaking the responsibility of seeing that every eligible Jew makes a visit to the blood bank during that month.

No editorial admonition, except this reminder should be required and The Post intends to give none. Follow the instructions you will receive either from B'nai B'rith or some organization of which you are a member, and if you have not visited the blood bank before, let this extra urge of the B'nai B'rith sponsorship move you to do your patriotic duty now.

What The Community Deserves

THE STAFF of the Jewish Post is happy to take this occasion to extend best wishes for a happy New Year to the Jewish community of Indiana. More so than most publications, The Post has been close to its readers, and hopes that in the future it will be able to be of more service to this finest Jewish community anywhere in the United States.

The theme of The Post has long been that Indiana because of the high type of its Jewish leadership and the high level of understanding of its Jewish citizenry, warrants a publication of corresponding merit.

That The Post is far from that goal goes without saying. The funds our growing circle of readers and growing number of advertisers provide us with, will all be put right back into the paper in the form of improvements and additions in our editorial department and more pages each week.

Jewish Havens Commented Upon by American Jewish Outlook — The search for Jewish havens has degenerated into each country suggesting that other countries are ideal havens. The Agro-Joint and the Refugee Economic Corporation have explored the possibilities of settlement in Alaska, Angola, Australia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Cuba, Lower California, New Zealand and Peru. In addition, Mindanao, the southernmost island of the Philippine group, and Bolivia have been considered. Then, too, the Augda Israel has held conversations with the Ethiopian Minister on the possibilities of settling Jews in Abyssinia. Haile Selassie has already made some gifts to the Jewish community and has several Jews as state advisers.

Unfortunately, however, anti-Semitism seems to grow as quickly as each new haven is mentioned. While the victory of the United Nations will help to cut off the source of Nazi-inspired anti-Semitism, there will still be a hard victory to be won. The solution does not lie in segregating Jews on some island or some bleak piece of ground that no one happens to want at the moment. To the extent that the return of peace will allow some of them to settle back in the lands of their birth, the problem will be helped. But there must be established the principle that Jews can settle anywhere like anyone else. To subscribe to anything less than this is to subscribe to the principles that underlie the Nazi concept of the inferiority of the Jew. This applies to Palestine as well. There should not be a quota against Jews settling in the Holy Land. The tolerance of this principle by the nations which supported the Balfour Declaration is responsible for much of the suffering that the Jews have been forced to endure in Europe.

Bond Sales at Holiday Services urged by the American Jewish Outlook of Pittsburgh — Shortly before Rosh Hashonah last year, youth leader Abraham Butler, who is now in uniform, was impressed with the idea that just as Haym Salomon interrupted the Day of Atonement service to raise money to save our young nation, so we might set aside one of the High Holy Days and allow an appeal for the sale of United States Government Bonds. Such attempts as he made to interest various groups bore no fruit, possibly because there was not enough time and possibly because annual appeals for particular purposes have a sort of right of way.

We were reminded of this opportunity for emphasizing the Jew in American life and repeating the success of Haym Salomon by a recent editorial in the Indianapolis Jewish Post. The $15,000,000,000 appeal will be at its height during September and will still need our best efforts on September 30th when Rosh Hashonah comes.

We urge our rabbis and synagogue leaders to consider the possibility of using the sermon period for this purpose. It should not be undertaken unless it will prove successful. Properly organized, however, it will prove successful. Properly pursued, it will lend decorum to the religious service rather than detract from it. Let the matter be considered.

ROME — Ludoviki Mortara, president of the Central Court of Justice, who is Jewish, has been replaced by Commadore Damelio Mariani, a Catholic, by orders of Mussolini. According to the press, Il Duce took this step in an attempt to obtain a reconciliation with the Vatican.

MOSCOW — An indication that the Soviet government's attitude towards religion is changing is seen here in the fact that no attempt, either by official or quasi-official groups, was made to interfere with the recent Rosh Hashonah services. The only complaints were those voiced to the authorities by some of the worshippers at the high prices charged by the synagogues for seats.

BERLIN — German Jewry is facing one of the most severe crises in its history, according to information available here. Reports from Munich say that anti-Semitic agitation there has reached new heights, with violent anti-Jewish posters on view in the streets. Informed observers feel that if the present government fails and Adolph Hitler, the Bavarian Fascist leader, takes power, severe persecutions will be visited upon the Jews.

BUDAPEST — "Anep," organ of the Fascist "Awakening Magyars," publishes a story to the effect that Otto Kahn told the Hungarian authorities that his banking firms would not join in any loan to the Hungarian government unless it took steps to stop the discrimination against Jews. The paper warns that if Hungary suffers because it is refused a loan on the basis of its anti-Semitic activities, the Jews will be massacred.

Praises Dr. Klatzkin's Book

"So colorful and brilliant a collection of aphorisms has not been published since Nietzsche. 'In Praise of Wisdom' is the work of a man with deep knowledge of life and soul whose diction is lucid and kindly, and who has counsel, enlightenment and consolation to offer to many." These are the words of Thomas Mann on Dr. Jacob Klatzkin's newest book, translated from the Hebrew, to be published Sept. 23 by L. B. Fischer Publishing Co.

Henry Monsky, noted leader in the communal affairs of American Jewry and president of B'nai B'rith, has become a national sponsor of the American Red Mogen Dovid for Palestine.

A meeting of the Executive Board of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations to consider the attitude of the Union toward the resolutions adopted by the American Jewish Conference has been called for Sunday, Oct. 3.

generously support not only with my means, but also with my personal service, all religious, educational and charitable institutions with which I am affiliated. When called upon for relief campaigns, gratitude for the blessings I am now enjoying in this country shall move me to put my shoulders to the wheel and afford help to the needy at home and to the sufferers abroad.

I firmly resolve that my conduct and relationship to my fellowmen will be such that I will demonstrate the three character traits by which the children of Abraham are known, namely, mercy, humility and charity, and both in private as well as in public life, I will try to reflect credit upon the Jew.

I firmly believe that if I carry out these resolutions I will derive happiness and satisfaction throughout the New Year.

courage and numbers and are awakening from the lethargy of decades and are becoming more militant and its cause more dynamic. Apathy plus ignorance are still plaguing the religious and cultural life of the American Jew. Our youth still drifts aimlessly searching for false gods to worship and pay homage. Jewish homes are still minus form and content and materialism is still the dominant motivating force in our lives. This fused scene of progress and regress, amelioration and deterioration we behold as we view the past—at which we must not tarry but hasten to penetrate the future.

We must not permit our plight to dishearten and discourage us but, as well, we must not permit our small gains and the seeming dawn of a brighter day to lull us into a false security and smug and satisfied complacency. It is imperative that we strain all our energies, individually and collectively, to hasten the day of victory and peace—thus terminating bloodshed; and making it possible for us to grapple with the weighty problems that will confront us then. Greater still must be our union of forces enabling us to cope with the overwhelming tasks of reconstructing the Jewish post-war world. Zionist activities must be accelerated since the struggle for Zion demands it and wandering Jewry has need of it. An all out effort must be launched to banish ignorance and indifference from Jewish life through the channels of the synagogue, classroom and home; thus salvaging our youth and granting them a philosophy of life with proper perspective.

This is the path we must travel before we can hear the small quiet voice giving promise of peace and tranquility to Israel. We are the voice, let us make it audible.

Louisville Leader Joins Frisch For Conference Report

Charles Strull, prominent Jewish civic leader of Louisville, Ky., and that city's delegate to the American Jewish Conference will share the program with Dan Frisch for the report meeting of B'nai B'rith set for 8 p. m. next Wednesday at Kirshbaum Center. The meeting is open to the public, and one of the largest crowds in the history of B'nai B'rith is expected to attend.

In announcing Mr. Strull's appearance, Dave Cook, president of the lodge, pointed out that the city would now be enabled to hear as fine a report as has been presented to any city. "In view of the unprecedented interest in the Conference," Mr. Cook added, "the Indianapolis lodge of B'nai B'rith is proud to be able to in-

Drive Leaders Say
20% Larger Gifts
War Fund Need

Need for increased giving to the United War Fund campaign which begins its city-wide drive on Oct. 25 was stressed this week by Jewish Welfare Fund leaders in a letter to the Jewish community. The JWF which is an affiliate of the United War Fund will receive $170,000 for local, national and overseas needs. In accepting the recommendation of the Jewish Welfare Fund Budget Committee, W. C. Griffith, president of the United War Fund stated that "While this sum ($170,000) represents about 15 per cent more than was actually raised in Indianapolis by the Jewish Welfare Fund in its last campaign, we recognize clearly the great burden which has been placed upon Jewish agencies as a result of Nazi oppression abroad."

Jewish Welfare Fund leaders emphasized in a New Year's statement that giving will have to be increased approximately 20 per cent if the War Fund is to meet the budget for Jewish causes.

Increased funds will be needed to provide immediate aid to hundreds of thousands of Jews in territory free from the shadow of the Axis and help to those who have endured ten years of Hitlerism. At the same time there are new possibilities for the rescue of thousands of Jewish children in North Africa, Russia and the Balkans who have been orphaned or separated from their parents by the war and Nazi persecution.

ON THE RECORD

IS THINKING DANGEROUS?

By DOROTHY THOMPSON
(Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

AMONG JOURNALISTS and radio commentators there is considerable dismay over C. B. S.'s new policy of "not opinionating the news." C. B. S. has instructed all members of their news staff, including sponsored commentators, to refrain from expressions of editorial opinion. Paul W. White, representing management, says that these broadcasters have been selected "because of background, knowledge, insight, clarity of thought, and special ability to make themselves understood," but that they must not tell the public "what they themselves think and what the public should think." They are not, he says, "privileged to crusade, to harangue the people, or attempt to sway public opinion!"

IT'S A LONG WAY from saying what you think, and conducting a crusade or haranguing the public. Crusaders and haranguers seldom stay on the air for long because the public doesn't like them, and what the public doesn't like brings in no contracts. To ban all editorial comment is another matter altogether. Mr. White justifies this on the ground that there are only a limited number of wave lengths, and that "a powerful and one-sided position on serious issues could be created by a small group of broadcasters."

"The threat of such unbalanced power is inimical to a democratic and free radio and democracy itself," he concludes with pontifical solemnity.

SINCE THE PRESS, at least, is still free for opinions, let's consider Mr. White's opinions.

He quotes with pride a comment by "Time" that C. B. S. news programs are "the most adult on the air."

I am inclined to agree with Time that the C. B. S. galaxy of commentators is probably the most brilliant of any network's. Ned Calmer, George Fielding Eliot, Ed Murrow, Cecil Brown, Bill Shirer, Quincy Howe, Bob Trout, and the others all are different in temperament, opinion, and voice, but they are all men of "insight and clarity of thought." And it is these men who have created for C. B. S. the prestige of which it boasts.

But they have not created it by withholding from the public what they think. None of them "harangues," but they all express opinions regarding the news, its significance, meaning, and its relation to public issues. If C. B. S. is not buying their capacities to think and to form opinions out of "background, knowledge, insight, and clarity of thought," what in the world is it buying? Anybody can read the news off a ticker tape, and many can assemble the bare news into presentable form, but the function of these men is to tell the public what the news reveals concerning where we are at and going. And that is a matter of opinion.

It will probably be argued that I am not personally disinterested in this discussion, since I am a radio commentator, from time to time myself. I can only answer that what C. B. S. wants commentators to do is a cinch beside what we try to do—namely to think while we read the news, and tell the public what we think. Every time we do it we risk our reputations. It's easier to earn one's living by parroting off the bare facts.

But, quite impersonally, I am appalled by Mr. White's arguments because of the fear they reveal of disinterested thought and intellectual leadership. It is not the "privilege" he argues, of men of "background, knowledge, insight, and clarity of thought" to influence public opinion. Who then should influence public opinion? Only politicians, party machines, business men and their promotion experts?

I should say it was the public duty of men such as Mr. White's broadcasters, to convey their thoughts to the public. For what have they trained themselves, in many years of travel, study, contact with leading persons, mastery of foreign languages, study in special fields? These men have no financial nor political power or ambition. None of them is running for public office or trying to stay in it. They can influence the public only through knowledge, reason, and logic. They and the independent writers are, in fact, almost the only disinterested pens and voices reaching the public at all. And all that supports them in the long run, is a record for having been right oftener than wrong.

BUT, SAYS MR. WHITE they might build up a powerful one-sided opinion. Now, really! Mr. White's own broadcasters are republicans and democrats, liberals and conservatives. They have only one thing in common: knowledge and intelligence. They are in competition with each other for the ear of the public. The F. C. C. has investigated the broadcasting companies on charges of monopoly but never the commentators. If perchance they should all agree on any single serious issue the presumption would be overwhelmingly in favor of their being right. Why shouldn't the public know it?

In the end the public, with the chance to listen to all of them decides every issue. It is not nearly so easily influenced as Mr. White fears. And if he actually carries through his program and reduces his first-class thinking staff to hacks he will lose his listeners. For the public likes to hear opinions about the news—if for no other reason than the luxury of disagreeing with them.

Editor's Note: The Jewish Post buys all of Dorothy Thompson's syndicated columns, of which she writes three a week, but naturally prints the one it feels best suited for its readers.

SOUTH BEND — The South Bend Chapter of Hadassah held its first formal meeting of the season Monday at the Hebrew Institute, at which Mrs. Philip Oestreich, chairman of the picnic held this summer, reported a total of $300 clear profit. The Child Welfare campaign has been launched, it was reported, and the quota already met, according to Mrs. Sam Berman, and her co-chairman, Mrs. Jack Kohen, whose novel idea was responsible for the success of the drive.

Mrs. Aaron M. Rine, American Affairs chairman, gave the monthly report, and Rabbi Stephen Sherman was the guest speaker.

To the editor,

I am greatly concerned over the attitude of some of our Jewish people in connection with the coming United War Fund Campaign from which the Jewish Welfare Fund and the Jewish Federation are to get a sum of around $225,000.00.

I know that all of our folks are going to want to do the right thing and will do it as they certainly do not want non-Jewish contributors to the War Fund to be paying for the Jewish charities that we have always maintained ourselves.

But what I am concerned about is the fact that many of our people have no conception of the facts that the needs for Jewish charities today particularly the United Jewish Appeal is greater than ever and when I approached one man the other day on the subject, he said to me, "What do you need all of the money for?"

Well, it didn't take him five minutes to learn that the facts are that more money is needed today than even last year and that, furthermore, every Jewish Community in the United States, without exception, is giving more money to the United Jewish Appeal, for example, this year, than ever before.

It hadn't occurred to this man that as fast as the Allies take over territory formerly held by Germany and Italy, such as North Africa, for example, that it means a release of a large number of Jews who have been in concentration camps of one degree or another and that now we have those poor souls on our hands to help give relief to and to try and give them a fresh start in life.

Furthermore, the more territory that our Allied armies recapture, the greater will be our need and the greater will be our opportunity to be of help to our people who are being rescued.

The reason I say that I am concerned is that simply because we have not had a Jewish Welfare Campaign this year in the usual manner—many of our people are not acquainted with the continued urgency of the situation.

For example, the Joint Distribution Committee has already spent in the first eight months of this year, $6,496,200.00 on their relief, rescue and rehabilitation program. And the Palestine agencies in the first six months of this year have spent $6,163,102.00 or $2,000,000.00 more than they did last year in the same six months.

Anyone who is acquainted with these facts cannot help being impressed, not only with the urgency of the need, but also with the fact that the money being raised actually is being spent.

Early this year, before we announced our Interim Campaign for the Welfare Fund, you ran an editorial saying that many people felt that the Interim Campaign would be a flop because, unless we had the fanfare we wouldn't raise the money. I answered you at that time and said that I did not believe that that would be so—that I had confidence in our people cooperating on the Interim Campaign without having to be hit over the head with fanfare in order to extract money from them. At that time I said that all of our people need, in order to cause them to give liberally, is to know that the money is actually needed and is being wisely spent.

I am pleased to tell you that now that the Interim Campaign is over with that almost without exception, every contributor cooperated beautifully and with the exception of the money we lost from those in the armed forces, or removed from the city, or through deaths, we raised all of the money that we expected to raise in the Interim Campaign and we were enabled to continue every agency in our budget on the same basis for this last six months' Interim Period as they were on in the previous fiscal year.

That is a record that our Indianapolis people can be proud of and is a tribute to their generosity.

Now, however, in coming to the United War Fund Campaign, we must remember that the Jewish Welfare Fund and the Jewish Federation jointly are going to receive approximately $225,000.00 which is an increase of about $20,000.00 more than these agencies previously received, either from the Jewish Welfare Campaign and from the Community Fund allocation, so if we Jews are going to want to do our part it means that the least we should expect from anyone is a contribution to the War Fund that will be no less than he gave to the War Fund and Welfare Funds, separately last year.

For us to do our full share, however, by meeting the increased needs that we have asked the War Fund to supply us money for, we must get increases and contributions wherever it is possible to do so and I feel confident that under the present war conditions, the generosity of our Jewish Community will not be found wanting.

CALLS WOMEN WHO PLAY CARDS 'DRONES'; SAYS THEY OUGHT TO BE ASHAMED

To the editor,

Received The Post without which I felt lost, really. I surely appreciate and would like to commend, if I may, your courageous editorial, "Give Up Bridge, Mah Jong—GET TO WORK."

After the ordeal of mobilizing volunteer aid for war efforts, may I say from experience, it isn't enough for "My Lady Fair" to go to Red Cross about twice a month, (if she does at all). There is small excuse even for young mothers of young babies not finding some niche wherein to serve some of the time when so many of our boys have had to give up everything, all of the time.

Certainly then, matured women who profess to have at heart the welfare of their boys in the service should find it imperative to give every possible aid to back these boys so that the fatalities shall not be prolonged even hours longer than absolutely necessary to achieve the victory we're all fighting for.

How can the drones who profit by the labor and effort of hard working willing civilians have the effrontery to go gadding about or clutter up the remaining doctors' offices with their imaginary ills when they should buckle down to give service somewhere along the line. It isn't enough to give sons to the service. Hard work is the proof of affection for these sons, friends and acquaintances in the service.

With only about 5 per cent of our women devoting hard-pressed time and laborious service, parasites should be ashamed to be inactive. Perhaps some of these 5 per cent are as delicate and unaccustomed to continuous toil as the shirkers. But they continue to give almost superhuman effort and constant devotion to the war effort while not neglecting other welfare activities either.

Need Told for War Record of Jews

To the editor,

In The Jewish Post of Aug. 20, we note on page one, a statement which the Bureau of War Records submitted to you for publication.

May we take this opportunity of thanking you most sincerely for your very helpful cooperation on this matter. We know it will help tremendously and we hope that in future issues of your publication you will continue calling the attention of your readers to the importance of supplying us with information regarding all men in the service, on enlistments, decorations and casualties.

Of course where you have a local committee compiling data, the records should be cleared through the local committee at the same time that they are submitted to us.

DAVID TURTELTAUB.
National Jewish Welfare Bd,
New York, N. Y.

Editor's Note: The Post does not print letters of thanks, although it appreciates them. This letter, then, is being printed because it tells about the job that the Jewish Welfare Board is trying to do throughout the nation in compiling a factual record of Jewish participation in the armed forces. In the large cities throughout Indiana, local Army and Navy Committees of the Jewish Welfare Board, which are a part of the State Committee headed by L. L. Goodman, compile these records, but in the smaller communities, only such a listing as is being printed elsewhere in this issue, will make it possible to get the names from these towns. Readers therefore are asked to scan the list referred to carefully and, where a name they know about is missing, are asked to send it in with wherever possible the name of the parents and their address. Even in the large cities, readers are asked to do the same thing, because although there is a committee for this in their community, that committee cannot operate successfully without everyone's cooperation, and often for one reason or another a name is overlooked.

Mrs. Max Cohen and daughter of New York City are guests of Mrs. Cohen's brother, Sam Beck, and Mrs. Beck.

Four Yoshas Now Serve; Also Son-in-Law, Mother

The recent induction of Nelson Yosha, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Yosha, 1114 S. Capital into the army brings the number of sons of the Yoshas in the army to four. They also have a son-in-law, Lt. Jake Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Morris, 1125 Union St., in the army. The other boys are Pvt. Sam, in active service in the Pacific area, Pfc. Albert, stationed in South Carolina, and Sgt. Jake Yosha, in Texas. Mrs. Yosha is said to be outstandingly active in Red Cross and Hadassah sewing work.

Organizations Being Lined Up For Blood Banks

Responses from organizations who are being scheduled for certain days during October at the Blood Bank as part of the drive of the Indianapolis Lodge of B'nai B'rith, have been very encouraging. Sid Mahalowitz, chairman of the blood bank committee announced this week.

The need for additional donors was stressed by blood bank officials who pointed out that the daily quota of 200 pints was not even being half met.

So far five destroyers and three Liberty Ships have been named after Jewish patriots. The Liberty Ships carry the names of Louis Marshall, Samuel Gompers and Haym Solomon. The destroyers are named after Jewish heroes in the navy, three of whom have fallen in the present war in the Pacific. These three are Lt. Ira Jeffery of Minneapolis, Ensign Robert Leopold of Louisville, Ky., and Ensign Daniel Seid of Brooklyn, N. Y. The records of their heroic deeds will be made public only when the war is over, but the fact that the U.S. Navy has found it fitting to name fighting ships in their memory speaks for itself. The other two Jews after whom destroyers have been named recently are Commodore Uriah P. Levy and Captain John Ordronaux who did no small service in the War of 1812.

Mrs. Charles Karsch, 5733 N. Delaware, has returned from a two-week's trip to New York. She accompanied her daughter, Jacqueline, back to the American School of Ballet where she is a student.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cohan and son, Jerome, are in Knoxville, Tenn., visiting their son and brother, Edwin H. Cohan, over the High Holy Days. Edwin Cohan is an Aviation Cadet at the University of Tennessee.

Mrs. Sol Sentir returned Sunday from St. Louis where she visited her son, Pvt. Harris Sentir, who is stationed temporarily at Jefferson Barracks. Pvt. Sentir was a pre-medic student at Indiana University before he enlisted.

Congregation Loses 2nd Rabbi To War

Special

CHICAGO — North Shore Congregation, which only recently gave its spiritual leader, Rabbi Charles Shulman to the Navy as a chaplain, now has given up its second rabbi to the service, for probably a record among congregations in the United States. North Shore's second rabbi to enter the service is Richard C. Hertz. The congregation secured a new occupant for its pulpit when the United Hebrew Congregation of St. Louis, generously sends its Assistant Rabbi James A. Wax, to them three days after he had been rejected by the army for physical causes.

NEW JEWISH HEROES OF THE NEW YEAR

Lt. Pincus Philip Taback is shown with a friend who admires his Distinguished Flying Cross. A fighter pilot, Lt. Taback often went on bombing raids to escort, among others, the B-17 upon which Sgt. Schiller Cohen was a gunner.

Sgt. Harold Cantor has flown on a total of 138 bombing raids against the Japs. He is personally credited with nine Zeros. After almost two years of combat duty, he has returned to the United States on furlough.

Maj. Carl J. Lichter, in an unarmed commercial plane, escaped Jap Zeros during the bombing of Clark Field, Hawaii. At Bataan he fought the Japs on the ground and later, from bases in Australia, he fought the Japs in the air on 76 operational missions.

(Pictures and Story by National Jewish Welfare Board)

Sgt. Schiller Cohen, recently hailed as New York's most decorated airman, is shown here on his return from Africa in the office of the Jewish Welfare Board. The letter he is writing is to acknowledge the reception given him at New York City Hall by Acting Mayor Newbold Morris.

Tail Gunner's Heroism — Story of Staff Sgt. Cohen

By BEN SAMUEL

THE NORTH POLE IS A TORRID little spot compared to the climate you run into when you're four miles above the ground in a B-17. Staff Sgt. Schiller Cohen found that out, and it nearly cost him his life.

Sgt. Cohen, who is a tail gunner, was home recently in New York City for a brief furlough. For his work on bombing missions—52 of them, all, he admits, "pretty tough jobs"—he has earned the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal, ten Oak Leaf Clusters, a squadron citation, and half a dozen commendations.

The toughest mission of them all, the one which included the little run-in with the weather, took place during the opening of the campaign against Italy. The target was Palermo.

It was hot that day at Cohen's base in North Africa. But as Cohen's ship, the Fortress Stinky, got into the air, and started to climb as it headed toward Palermo, it grew steadily colder.

Cohen, crouched in his tail position, made sure his electric suit plug was attached.

Trouble came at them as they circled the coast of Sicily—trouble in the shape of 50 enemy planes. There were no American fighters with them on this trip. Cohen and the other gunners were kept busy keeping the enemy planes off.

They fought all the way to the target. Finally, they reached Palermo. And just as they got there, 30 more fighters came up.

With the 80 fighters harassing them, the American bombers began their runs. Suddenly Cohen saw the bomber on his ship's right wing, the Yankee Doodle, get a blast. Shell fire raked the tail, almost smashing it apart from the rest of the ship. It hung by a hair.

The tail gunner aboard the Yankee Doodle parachuted out. The ship began to go down toward the water. Cohen called his pilot and
